

Apply to register for a performing animals licence
under the Performing Animals (Regulation) Act 1925

If you intend to keep or train animals for public performance – for example, in a circus, television, theatre or in a film – you must apply for a licence from our Trading Standards service.

About you

For your contact address, please enter one of the following:

- address of fixed place of residence in Great Britain
- permanent postal address in Great Britain from which letters addressed to you will be forwarded.

For your training address, please enter the address or addresses in Great Britain – other than temporary addresses while on tour – where you train or intend to train performing animals.

Certificate number		Certificate date

About the animals

Please list the kinds of animals you wish to exhibit or train, and state the number of each kind of animal.

Kind of animals to be exhibited	Number of animals to be exhibited

Kind of animals to be trained	Number of animals to be trained

About the performance

Describe briefly the performances in which the animals are to be exhibited or trained for. You should give a general idea of what is done by the animals taking part in the performance, but you don't need to give details which would reveal any professional secret. You should include:

- approximate duration of the performance
- number of times it is usually performed in one day
- number of animals of each kind taking part in the performance
- any apparatus used for the performance.
