Dear Sir/Madam

Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 – Section 53 Claimed Public Right of Way at South Common, South Chailey (Hooke Estate).

Further to my letter of 13 August 2020 I am writing to inform you that the applicant, Mr Smith, has appealed the Councils decision.

A copy of the Applicant's Appeal documentation can be found on our website here:

Please let me know if you would prefer a paper copy of the Appeal, however please note that due to remote working as a result of Covid-19 this service may be delayed.

I now await to hear more about the Appeal from the Planning Inspectorate who will in due course contact me and include their reference term for it.

Should you need to contact them their contact details are as below:

The Planning Inspectorate

Rights of Way Map

An online Rights of Way Map showing footpaths and bridleways across the County is available on the East Sussex website at the following address:

<https://www.eastsussex.gov.uk/leisureandtourism/countryside/rightsofway/map/>

The map can be used to plan walks and rides on the Rights of Way network. It also provides the location and reference number of stiles, gates and bridges, as well as path numbers.
